Albacharter booking policies

How to rent

The boat can be rented only with the presence on board of a skipper.

The payments

The boat can be rented only with the presence on board of a skipper.

The payments if you confirm your request, the contract will be sent to you immediately, which must be completed and signed in duplicate. The contract (in duplicate) and the bank transfer receipt certifying the 50% payment must be sent by email to our address; the balance must be paid within 1 month of departure. Payments must be made by bank transfer.

Deposit: not necessary.

ARE EXCLUDED:

- Fuel for boat: the boat is delivered with a full tank of fuel (diesel) and must be returned with a full tank or paying the difference of the one consumed.
- Fuel for the outboard motor: the outboard for the tender is delivered with a full tank of fuel, and must be returned with a full tank or paying the difference of the one consumed.
- Galley: it is charged to the customer. However, it is possible to ask to be able to find it already on board, providing a shopping list and paying a percentage of 15% of the total receipt.

Weekly boarding

For weekly rentals, check-in takes place on Saturdays from 16:00. The boat will have to return to its port of disembarkation on the following Saturday at 09:00 to check out.

One Way Formula (on request)

It is possible to leave the rented boat in another port other than the embarkation one only if previously and contractually envisaged; however, it is always possible, if compatible with other subsequent rentals (to be communicated when booking the boat).

The cost will depend on how far the port of disembarkation is from the nautical base of our company.
